Dear David:

Pursuant to our cordial conversations last month, I am pleased to send for your review and consideration various key publications of the Hillsborough Animal Health Foundation.

I'd like to call particular attention to the text on our series of a dozen educational bookmarks . . . as well as the question and answer content in our Cost of Compassion brochure, and our annual hurricane preparedness guide for pet owners.

Hopefully, you'll find considerable editorial material to share with your readers. Let me know if you have any related questions or feedback.

Looking forward to further contact in the weeks and months ahead,

Sincerely,

HILLSBOROUGH ANIMAL HEALTH FOUNDATION

Ron Yogman, Community/Public Relations Coordinator

P.S. I'd like to remind you that we would especially like to give exposure to our Veterinary Hotline: (813) 221-4804 and our all-new web site: www.HAHF.org
